

STEFAN SAGMEISTER - Posters for the “NOW IS BETTER” Exhibition

A collaboration with Stefan Sagmeister for his 2023 exhibitions in GGG Gallery Tokyo, and at the DDP Cultural Center in Seoul, both in 2023

Each image serves as a data chart reflecting numbers.

The sizes of the rice cones indicate the highest auction results for selected contemporary Japanese artists.

(Source: Mutualart.com)

Yoshimoto Nara	$ 24,962,180
Takashi Murakami	$ 15,161,000
Yayoi Kusama	$ 7,109,000
Mariko Mori	$ 156,250

The lengths of the worms indicate the CO2 emissions from fossil fuels and industry per capita in South Korea.

(Source: OurWorldinData based on the Global Carbon Project)

1960	0.49 tons	2000	9.40 tons
1970	1.65 tons	2010	12.18 tons
1980	3.52 tons	2020	11.53 tons
1990	5.68 tons

Robbery rates, Country rankings per 100,000 people
(Source: The Global economy.com)

from left to right:

Sweden	86 robberies
USA	98 robberies
Ecuador	457 robberies
Belgium	180 robberies
Philippines	15 robberies
South Korea	2 robberies
Argentina	920 robberies
Columbia	244 robberies